Grades and Conditions Required for Applying for Duanwei Ranking

The following are required for non-Chinese citizens who wish to apply for Wushu Duanwei according to the regulations of the Chinese Wushu Duanwei System.

1. Anyone who applies for admission to Duanwei ranking must receive Wushu ethics education, understand the basic precepts of Wushu ethics cultivation and master Wushu etiquette.

2. Anyone who adheres to the cultivation of wushu ethics and has participated in Wushu Duanwei training organized by the Chinese Wushu Association and has passed the required assessment is eligible to apply for admission to the primary ranks (Grades 1 to 3) as set by the Chinese Wushu Duanwei system.

3. Anyone who adheres to the cultivation of Wushu ethics and, as a boxing master, has achieved a certain level of accomplishment in pugilism in a comprehensive and systematic way; or anyone who has been engaged in Wushu teaching activities outside of China for more than five years and who was previously a professional teacher or coach in a relevant position in China; or an athlete who has achieved a ranking higher than Grade One in any martial art; or anyone who has received Wushu Duanwei training organized by the Chinese Wushu Association and has passed the necessary assessment is qualified to apply for intermediate level ranking (Grades 4 to 6).

4. Anyone who adheres to the cultivation of Wushu ethics and, as a follower of Wushu, has achieved a certain level of accomplishment in pugilism in a comprehensive and systematic way; or anyone who has been engaged in Wushu teaching activities outside of China for more than ten years overseas and who was previously a professional teacher or coach in a relevant position in China or martial-hero level athlete or renowned Wushu athlete (having obtained single champion status in national Wushu competitions); or anyone who has contributed significantly to the development of Chinese Wushu and who has received Wushu Duanwei training and has passed the necessary assessment is qualified to apply for advanced level ranking (Grades 7 to 9).