Lecture: “Acupuncture in China”

Speaker: Professor Jiping Zhao
Time: Friday, September 26th, 2:00pm
Location: Drachman building A118, UA College of Public Health
1295 N. Martin Ave.
Admission: Free

Professor Jiping Zhao from the Beijing Chinese Medicine University directs one of the largest acupuncture clinics in an affiliated hospital of Beijing University of Chinese Medicine. She will discuss how acupuncture is used in Chinese hospitals to help patients achieve and maintain optimal health. Professor Zhao is a well-known doctor of Chinese medicine with 30 years clinical practice and research experience focusing on acupuncture treatments. She is often invited to give presentations on Chinese television and radio about the utility of acupuncture in helping patients with various health conditions.

For more information about the events during Chinese Culture Festival, please visit the Confucius Institute Website at: confucius.arizona.edu.