Confucius Institute at The University of Arizona

3RD ANNUAL CIUA CHINESE CULTURE FESTIVAL: SEPTEMBER 20-28

Workshop: “Chinese Medicine - From Theory to Practice” (lunch provided)

Speakers: Professor Jiping Zhao, Beijing Chinese Medicine University
Professor Dawei Wei, Henan University of Traditional Chinese Medicine

Time: Saturday, September 27th, 11:00am - 2:00pm
Location: Drachman Building A118, UA Mel and Enid Zuckerman College of Public Health, 1295 N. Martin Ave.
Admission: Free (please register for lunch by emailing confucius@email.arizona.edu or by calling (520) 626-5124)

This workshop will focus on how to use basic Chinese medical theory to guide the clinical practice of Chinese medicine. It is open to the general public and health-care providers are especially encouraged to attend to participate in a face to face discussion with Drs. Zhao and Wei from China on key issues of Chinese medical practices.

For more information about the events during Chinese Culture Festival, please visit the Confucius Institute Website at: confucius.arizona.edu.

Chinese Culture Festival: September 20 - 28, 2014

Confucius Institute Day
Saturday September 20th, 9:00 am-2:00pm
Tucson Chinese Cultural Center

Lecture: A History of Public Time-Telling in Contemporary China
Monday September 22nd, 12:00pm
Ventana Room, UA Student Union Memorial Center

Lecture: Yellow River
Wednesday September 24th, 7:00p-9:00p
UA Poetry Center

Lecture: The Changing Image of Confucius in Modern China
Friday September 26th, 12:00-noon
Ventana Room, UA Student Union Memorial Center

Lecture: Acupuncture in China
Friday September 26th, 2:00pm
Drachman building A118, UA Mel and Enid Zuckerman College of Public Health

Lecture Dinner: Chinese Food Therapy
Friday September 26th, 5pm-9pm
Gee’s Garden Bistro

An Evening with Chinese Music
Sunday September 28th, 7:30pm
Crowder Hall, UA School of Music